

The Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) is holding a series of statewide Family Forums on the Children's Behavioral Health Initiative ("Rosie D"). The first of these forums will be held on:

Wednesday, Sept 24th
6:30-8:30 PM
Blessed Sacrament Church,
Phelan Center (the yellow brick building behind the Rectory)
551 Pleasant St
Worcester, MA 01602

The Children's Behavioral Health Initiative (CBHI) is an undertaking by EOHHS to implement the Court Order in a lawsuit known as Rosie D. vs. Romney. Representatives from EOHHS, MassHealth, and the MA Department of Mental Health (DMH) will provide information on upcoming CBHI services; solicit family feedback on how to measure the success of this new effort, and answer your questions about CBHI and how it may affect your family.

Registration is not required but seating may be limited

Light refreshments will be served

A list of the upcoming CBHI Family Forum dates and locations around the state will be available soon.

To request an accommodation, please call 617 573 1832 or TTY: (800 872-0166). Meeting agenda will be available at the door or to view on-line go to www.mass.gov/masshealth/childbehavioralhealth and click "Attachments" one day prior to the event.
